FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dear members,

As you are all aware by now, the new committee started with a fund raising function to help the poor in Sri Lanka. The response was beyond expectation. Bayside Community Outreach, with the help of the Committee and other members of the Silver Fawn Club, raised funds to ship hospital beds to Sri Lanka. This brings blessings, not only to myself but to all who contributed financially and physically. The first donation I received was from one of our own members who was present at the last Have-a- Chat and I wish her good health and happy days to come.

The Colombo Street Food had a "breath taking atmosphere", so they say. The hall was beyond recognition. I managed to provide seats for 168 people and still found enough space for dancing and for the indoor stalls. My planning skills, gained from many years in my trade as a Food & Beverage Coordinator, came in handy. My brother, Ashley, was a huge help as backup as he too was a hotelier for more than 30 years.

We plan to use our skills again for the Anniversary Dance scheduled to take place on the 24th of June. Do join us and enjoy a mouth watering meal. More fun and excitement is in store for all.

The Have-A-Chat has been moved to Sunday the 21st of May instead of Saturday 20th. I do apologise for any inconvenience. Although we had booked the venues for all events early in the year, the management of the Enoggera Bowls Club recently advised us that they are unable to give us the hall on the 20th of May. The committee has planned to serve you with a traditional farmer's meal that you would have tasted in the good old days in Ceylon. Fried dried fish with fried red chillies is my favourite with a bit of lime pickle to go with it! Claude Gonsalves and David Garth will be your hosts for the day and I am sure you all enjoy their company.

Immediately after the Colombo Street Food event, I had to travel to Germany to help my sister who had to undergo open heart surgery. I had to cut short my trip to return to Australia to organise the Annual Camp. There were many calls from members during my absence and the committee did their best to keep the interested campers informed. I hope I have not disappointed anyone by not returning their call but I do hope that you will understand my situation during that time. At this coming Have-a- Chat we will start our new member's draw. You have to be present at the time of draw to win. That's not all! Any member celebrating his/her birthday during the month of May and have a document to prove it, will receive free entry to the Have-a-Chat.

There is more! Any member who has turned 90 or will be turning 90 during this year will receive free entry for the Golden Years Christmas party. Please send me a small note so that I could prepare a complimentary entry ticket.

July the 1st is the Feast Day of our Lady of Madhu in Canungra, Beechmont. This is my 17th year as the chairperson organising this religious event. There will be a bus organised by Sandra Joseph and Claude Gonsalves. I will be making a small donation as a subsidy in case there are less people to travel. If anyone out there wants to be a part of this subsidy, please contact any committee member or myself.

God bless us all and keep us all in good health.
Isidore Storey

COLOMBO STREET FOOD

Oh what a night (1st of April, Seventeen)!

Clang clang, ta-ka ta-ka, ting-a-ling, parp parp - the familiar sounds of Colombo rang out, vying for the attention of the 168 members and guests who turned up at "Galle Face Green" to relive the tastes, sounds and the memories of days gone by.

The "shop" fronts created by our talented president, Isidore Storey, were nothing short of amazing. Each had its own character and effect - "woven" walls, "rock" surfaces, and "brick" walls with coloured shades. We were lucky to have the electrical expertise of committee member, Ranjith Thomas, who assisted with setting up multi coloured lights that greeted the "customers" at each stall and installed fluorescent lights for the cooks behind the counters. Every little detail added to the authenticity. Each stall had a counter for serving along with a sign indicating what culinary experiences you could have there. Coupons that were handed out at the door could be exchanged for whatever type of cuisine that took your fancy.

At the "Hopper Burning" stall Barbara & Ashley Storey twirled 15 hopper pans to turn out plain hoppers and egg hoppers served with beef curry and seeni sambol. Next door was the "Kottu Hitting" stall where Thilani Gomes and her helpers were loading customers' plates with Kottu Roti and string hoppers served with chicken curry, pol sambol and 'kiri hodhi'. There was also the all time favourite, 'Isso Wadai' - Galle Face Green wouldn't be Galle Face Green without it. The kadala and achcharu 'Ammes', dressed aptly for the part, served endless "gottas" (cones) of kadala and cups of achcharu. The latter, made with pineapple, olives and ambarella, is yet another hidden talent of President Storey. To top it all off, there was Faluda and curd & treacle from "Nana's Sweet Corner".

The whole scene was made even more amusing and authentic with the "sweep ticket" sellers (Basheer and Becky) who roamed the "streets" with envelopes of (raffle) tickets attached to planks just like they used to be in days gone by. The wheelie walker, fitted out with planks of tickets and with signs advertising "National Lottery" tickets added an amusing touch to the re-creation of the streetscape of Colombo.

Everyone had the opportunity to try all the food on offer and then it was time to work it all off to the great selection of music by DJ Ty Fox. Thank you Ty, for the fantastic dance music and thank you also to Neville Shedden for getting people off their seats and on to the dance floor!

A big thank you from the committee to Deanna Misso for the much needed helping hand at the door, to John Furlong and Dennis Arnolda for helping with announcements, to Corinne and Beatrice for helping at the hopper stall, to Herbie and Lorraine for helping with the clean up and to everyone else who helped to make the event so successful.

Despite the hall being rather hot and humid (due to air-conditioning that didn't work combined with the heat from the hopper burners), judging by all the written and verbal appreciation received, everyone had a really great time.

Niranjalie

P.S. Apologies if some members are not able to understand some of the terms in this report. Conveying the right picture with substitute words turned into an impossible task!

COLOMBO STREET FOOD—Held 1st April 2017

COLOMBO STREET FOOD

Having recently been in Sri Lanka and enjoyed the street food at Galle Face Green, we were curious trying to anticipate how the venue could be made to even remotely resemble the Green. Indeed we could hardly have been more surprised. An amazing transformation had taken place. The kitchens and various food stalls were quite novel. The coupon system worked a treat and the food on offer, as advertised, was authentic and delicious. The efficiency and speed of the 'cooks' kept the waiting queues moving. I am sure the abundance and variety of food had us all filled to capacity, especially my grandson as he indulged in the food he so loved during his trip to Sri Lanka. To crown the evening we had the delightful, wonderfully "danceable" music of DJ Ty Fox. This was a happy, fun-filled function to tuck under the belts of the new committee.

Hats off to Isidore, the new committee and all who were involved in organising a most novel and imaginative function. It was both inventive and challenging. May the resourcefulness, skill and talents of Isidore and his team and their boundless energy long be enjoyed by the members of our Club.

Deanna.

Hi Isidore

Quick email to congratulate you and your team for a great night, good food and music. You had done an excellent job with the food carts and the 'Achcharu', that I heard, you made was really good. A lot of hard work had gone into the night.

Regards Susan

"Galle Face Green"

Congratulations to the new committee and the team for organizing a most enjoyable evening! The logistics for setting up and running such an event would certainly have been enormous, however you handled it most admirably and everything moved smoothly and well. The food, fun, music, dancing and fellowship were all top class. The atmosphere brought us as close as possible to the "good old days in Sri Lanka" and we really felt that we were on the "Galle Face Green" – clang, clang, Ta-ka, Ta-ka, humidity and all!!!

Arthur & Heather

Issy and the team

Congratulations for putting up a great show with the first Silver Fawn function for the year (Colombo Street Food). Great concept and very innovative. We all had a great time.

We are sure the camp this year will be even greater and we are sorry to be missing out due to a family engagement.

Thanking you all

Ian and Sandra

Issy,

Just a short note of appreciation for the wonderful night at the Colombo café. The food, music and service were great and I am sure that everyone had a good time.

Thanks

Cheers.

Davenal

CAMP 2017

Pictures do tell a thousand words. However, for those who were at Lake Perseverance for our annual camp, perhaps a wonderful "Storey"(!) could be woven, revealing the fun and food enjoyed by all 96 present.

We were truly blessed with good weather and hence the sporting ground was abuzz with activity for the young, the very young and the young at heart. It was a delight to see many of the mothers take an active role in getting their very young ones across the finish line. The traditional tug-o-war, was never a war but just a walk! What with the Omars and the presence of Leroy, a big man with a big heart who let nobody sweat on one side, there was no chance for the opposition as they were dragged home in seconds. The finish line for the ladies seemed so near but yet so far as a hamstring injury put Deb in a great deal of trouble. Thanks to the care and advice of Dr Judy, the camp doctor, it was good to see Deb was "all systems go" once again.

More than just leading and managing, Isidore, our president, along with the committee, broke away from the past practice of having various teams preparing the meals and instead had Ruth & Barbara Storey along with Yvonne Omar turning out every meal - fit for royalty! The selection of the menu and the execution by the chefs was authentic and traditional. If I were to ask for a second helping of Watalappam, I would visually express the sin of gluttony! Nevertheless, I would seek counsel from our camp pastor, Karol Misso, who celebrated the Sunday interdenominational service. The morning breakfast, afternoon meal, 'achcharu' in between, not to mention the cake for tea, made many of us feel that we were not too keen on dinner but we were all there ready to attack, no sooner the servery was opened!

The nights, of course, were rather cool and that surely was good reason to keep warm in the right spirit and also to keep the "spirits" up! The sing-a-long on Friday night set the tone for the rest of the camp and come Saturday night the main hall was transformed into a warm oasis - a meeting place for the wealthy citizens of the oil rich nations - in keeping with the theme 'Arabian Nights'. Many men were dressed in traditional flowing arab gowns and the religious ones, with beads in hand, worshipped in prayer. The women in their finery did not disappoint - all complete with face coverings as well. It was a sweet surprise to see quite a few children dressed to fit in with the night and it was a delight to see them on the "cat-walk"!

Sunday, once again, the traditional cricket match in the park was followed by a very crowded evening. There were prizes galore for every sport and prizes for the best presented 'Arabian' man, woman, girl and boy. Of course, a club function is never complete without a raffle and hence the winners of the raffle completed the prize distribution.

It was now time for another night of song & dance, comedy & speech. It was wonderful to see the young ones strutting their stuff. The enthusiasm and the confidence of the kids put the adults to shame. I hope we will see a lot of these young ones at our Christmas celebrations. It was heartening to see some acts put up by the adults too but we hope that there will be a lot more acts next year. The night, although long, did keep some of the young at heart enjoying the music and swaying until the late night hours.

That was yet another camp gone by. We look forward to Camp 2018!

From happy “campers”:

Dear Isidore and team

This is a letter of appreciation from Karol, Dominic and myself for the weekend of fun and fellowship. Isidore's vision and Basheer's meticulous planning came together beautifully, supported by the culinary skills of Ruth, Barbara and Yvonne. The menus were varied, a surprise, luscious and mouth-watering. Dominic thought he was in a Sri Lankan heaven, and was admonished by his mother on returning home, that she did not wish to hear every detail of the food he ate!

It was great to have three past presidents actively involved in the program – Gerard commanding respect on the sports field as Basheer's sore knee kept him watching from the sidelines; Egerton too rolled up his sleeves and pitched in and in the evening, artistic Niranjali with the help of colourful saris and stars draped across the beams, transported us to an Arabian Nights cave. To complete the picture, a procession of kids in colourful attire brought smiles to the faces of us all. The swaying hips of the glittering harem girls as they sashayed in followed by their dashing sheiks were a definite challenge to the judges.

We were left in no doubt as to the hours of planning and the physical effort that would have been involved in putting together such a well organised camp for nearly 100 persons of varied ages. This was apparent in the smooth running of events throughout the weekend. The camp committee comprising of Mark, Gerard, Basheer, Niranjali, Ruth, Claude, Barbara, Shirley, and Meuris kept on the ball each managing their particular role, watched over by our tireless, ever vigilant President Isidore.

So, the three of us wish to express our thanks and admiration for a fun filled, relaxed weekend in glorious weather, and the opportunity to celebrate our common heritage.

Deanna.

Dear Barbie,

It was a very memorable weekend. We enjoyed to the fullest. Big thank to you and organising committee for organising such a fabulous camp.

Kind regards
Judy

FUND RAISING EVENT TO SUPPORT THE 2ND SHIPMENT OF SURGICAL BEDS, EQUIPMENT AND FURNITURE

On behalf of the Bayside Community Outreach Brisbane we acknowledge and thank the effort of members from the Silver Fawn Club, led by Issy Storey for the contribution they made in making this fundraising event a great success.

Also, we would like to thank the Management and staff of the Waterloo Leisure Centre Wynnham, who all played a significant part in making this a successful event for such a worthy cause.

The ladies did a terrific job with the hall décor using their creative skills at a very low cost budget. To compliment the ambience, the food by the caterer Brian Pereira was outstanding and was acknowledged by our very multicultural patrons. In addition the music by the band Savvy and the MC Luke Saunders kept the crowd alive.

We also like to thank those who could not attend but made contributions, our sponsors and the team of young lads responsible for the loading and preparing the container for shipment.
