IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL MEMBERS

As you would have read in a previous Newsletter, Enoggera Bowls Club is being renovated and we have had to find new venues for our functions, one of them being the Mitchelton Senior Citizens Centre.

Unfortunately this venue can only seat comfortably, approximately 130 people and there could be times we may be at this number before the closing date for bookings.

We would strongly recommend that if you intend attending a function that you book early so as not to be disappointed.

President's Message

Dear Members,

Welcome to our fifth and last Newsletter for this year 2019. It's being a hectic ride, with our usual events and along with planning behind the scenes for our 50th Jubilee celebrations!

On the 21st of September our Videotheque and STRING HOPPER night was sensational with everyone dancing and singing along to the beautiful music by our very own DJ Dark'n Tall1. The String Hoppers were delicious with accompanying curries and Watalappan by caterers Brian and Sri. A great big thanks to all, especially to Andy and the committee for organising this event.

It was a fantastic night, thank you all for coming and making it a memorable one.

The Golf Tournament, has been postponed for now, details to be sent out to participants soon.

Our Have A Chat on the 20th of October, was quieter than normal, due to other commitments from our usual patrons, but in no means uneventful and so enjoyed by all present.

We had a guest speaker from ARCARE who gave a presentation on Home Health Care Services available from aged care services. Everyone was given a bag with information leaflets, it was quite interesting as we all are getting to that stage sooner than later!

We had our usual bingo and the raffle - the winners were the grinners - thank you all for donating the prizes. The lunch was sumptuous catered by Thilani and crew. And the afternoon tea was a hit as always, catered by Jeremy Henderling and a special thanks to Rena Henderling for the table decorations with a personal touch.

Here are our Upcoming Events in the next two months:

17 November Lanka Food Fiesta

Please come and feast on the delicious variety of our very own Sri Lankan food.

14th December - Christmas Function With Carols

Hoping to see you all as the festive season begins.

31st December - New Year's Eve Dinner Dance

Please buy your tickets early, so not to be disappointed.

A massive thank you to the committee for organising and helping out in all events we have had so far and the rest to come, without your contribution this would have not been possible. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank each member of the Club and my committee for supporting me throughout this year, and for your continuous support in keeping this tremendous Club alive.

Please stay safe during this festive season!

Merry Christmas and God's Blessings for a Prosperous and Happy New Year 2020.

Warm Regards
Herbie

FUNCTION REPORTS

VIDEOTHEQUE NIGHT

The Silver Fawn Club's Videotheque Night was held on 21st September at the Mitchelton Senior Citizens Hall. We had 110 people who attended the function.

The night was planned to be different to the normal Club Nights that are offered by the Silver Fawn Club. DJ DarknTall1 aka Ruvan did a fabulous job and was the ideal person to be the DJ for the evening. He provided video clips from the 60's, 70's and 80's along with the music which kept everybody dancing the night away while singing along to the music that most of us grew up with. Nostalgic memories of the good old days kept catapulting through our brains. Well done and thank you Ruvan.

The hall was simply decorated with fairy lights and lanterns. Thank you to everybody who came to the Hall earlier in the day, helped after the event not forgetting our raffle sellers. Brian and Sri provided a sumptuous "String hopper" meal followed by Watalappam for dessert which was enjoyed by everybody. Well done caterers.

Finally, thank you to all the members and guests who attended to ensure the evening was a great success.

Andy Weerasinghe

HAVE A CHAT PARTY ~ 20 OCTOBER

It was another successful day for the Members- wonderful soft music, beautiful hall ambience, delicious lunch and afternoon tea, were the ingredients to accompany the very eventful day. At 11.30am, the hall was looking very inviting and the Have A Chat was ready. The Committee members and their partners should receive a big thank you for creating an ambience which was praised by all.

It was disappointing to have a small crowd, especially when the ARCARE team were discussing the health benefits from the Government and their homes. Nevertheless, the members and guests had a good Question and Answer Session which did explain the Health Care Benefits available.

Lunch was then served at about 1p.m to the delight of everyone, who were looking forward to the special meal by Thilani. Many commented that the food was delicious even the Arcare team commented that the lunch was very tasteful and not that hot.

The Bingo games were another enchanting challenge. Egerton our Bingo master and his assistant the lovable Becky, called the numbers while Laurensz our Compere kept the crowd in laughter, with his little cracks at the way the numbers were called and the distribution of the Arcare bags. The raffle too was a roaring success with all tickets sold due to the pressing sales of our team.

Following the BINGO, a delicious afternoon tea was prepared by Jeremy which consisted of cake, sweets and savouries and many members took this home as it was too good to leave behind.

The afternoon ended with a big thank you by all, as everyone had an entertaining day. The Club wishes to thank all the Committee members and their partners, namely our co-Chairman and Treasurer the dependable Susan, Herby (our President extraordinaire) Lorraine (our lovely ticker Seller), music Supplier Andy, Laurensz our exciting Compere, Sharyn who handles every job with care, Fyri and Ray who are always available and helpful, Preethi and Margot, who lent a hand. Lastly our well-known Rena who provided the table décor and the "kadale" before lunch which was enjoyed by all.

My great thanks to everyone who helped to make this event such an enjoyable day.

Best regards,

Davenal.

FASCINATING HEIDELBERG – A Journey Through Time

Karol and I were privileged to be invited to serve as Locum during the months of June and July 2019 in the English Church in Heidelberg. Karol is registered in the Anglican Diocese of Europe so as this was our fourth European Chaplaincy, we felt very comfortable accepting this offer. Furthermore, since we had travelled extensively through Germany in 2017, we saw this as an opportunity for a relaxing holiday.

The 'English Church' as it is known, is in the heart of the Old Town, surrounded by University campuses. Since this is the only Church with an English language Liturgy, people located throughout Heidelberg and beyond travel long distances mostly on bicycle, to worship when they can. Apart from the small core of English Anglicans who maintain the Chaplaincy, the rest were German Lutherans. There were also a few from the former British African colonies.

Karol's first Eucharist happened to fall on Pentecost Sunday. This is a major feast in Germany and Pentecost Monday as they call it is a public holiday. We were invited to participate in an ecumenical service on that day. This is held biannually in the Catholic Jesuitenkirche, the largest Catholic Church in Heidelberg. I was honoured to be asked to write and read an Intercessory prayer during the service. Eight others would do the same. At the appropriate time we stood in a semi-circle behind the altar and in turn read our prayer. Mine was the only English language prayer, the other eight prayers and the entire service was conducted in German. During the service an offering was taken and to our immense surprise and gratitude the Council of the 'Churches Together in Heidelberg' decided and sent 430 Euro to the Anglican Bishop of Colombo to be used for works of reconciliation or reconstruction.

The one-bedroom apartment rented by the Chaplaincy was well equipped and furnished comfortably. and from there wherever we needed to go. The first thing that took getting used to was the sun shining in at our bedroom window at 10.00pm! We soon found our way to the two large supermarkets, Aldi and Rewe, a 10 minute walk along a bike path. Here we got all the basic necessities and more, to feed ourselves without the expense of restaurant meals. An efficient network of electric trams (more a mini train actually) got us to the City centre, the Bismarckplatz, and from there wherever we needed to go.

Heidelberg is Germany's oldest and most famous university town. It is located 93km south of Frankfurt and is surrounded by magnificent lush forests in '40 shades' of green. The beautiful Neckar River meanders through the city. Heidelberg's baroque Altstadt, (Old Town) with sloping red roofed houses runs along the left bank. On the forest covered hills, the enormous, ruined Renaissance Castle towers over the Altstadt. One of Europe's longest pedestrian zones, the 1600m long Hauptstrasse (main street) stretches from Bismarckplatz, to the bridges across the river. The shops lining the street never failed to entice me.

On our first morning we enjoyed a leisurely breakfast and set off to explore the city with the excellent 'Heidelberg Guide with city map'. From Bismarckplatz it was an easy walk across the bridge spanning the river. We discovered that the Botanical Garden was a research space for the University, as was the Zoo. However, it was a lovely surprise to see the animals, even the big cats and elephants, in spaces resembling their natural habitat where they could roam freely.

Not knowing what to expect we headed for the Philosophers' Walk. This is a 2.5km narrow winding uphill path past monuments, towers, ruins, a beer garden and an enormous amphitheatre built by the Nazis in 1935. As we climbed, we were treated to gorgeous views of the river, the old town and the Castle, until we hit the steep winding Schlangenweg (snake path) leading down to the 200m long Old Bridge built in 1786. The Old Town is a tourist haven of Souvenir shops, stalls and cafes. Rising from the centre of this busy square is the beautiful red sandstone Catholic Jesuitenkirche. This square is also known as the Market place. A few minutes' walk brought us to Universitätsplatz. As the name suggests, university buildings take pride of place. The small two storey Student Prison was particularly interesting to explore. From 1823 to 1914 students were incarcerated here for various transgressions. They immortalised themselves drawing murals, graffiti and poems on the walls and ceilings, all very carefully preserved for future generations.

The Heidelberger Schloss (castle) and gardens was built on the site of a medieval castle complex. The Palatine Princes resided here for 400 years until it was destroyed in 1693. The enormous pink façade of the ruined castle is beautiful and worth taking the cogwheel train 80m up the hillside for a visit. You also get a great view of the Old Town with river snaking around it from the castle walls and gardens.

Bergfriedhof Heidelberg is one of 17 cemeteries in the city of Heidelberg. Constructed on a mountain of former vineyards in 1844 it is cross-denominational, where trees and birds of all kind abound and lend an air of peace and tranquillity. We were struck by the way tomb stones and graves were positioned within a space created by a group of trees. All the graves were well tended with rose bushes and other flowers blooming gaily on them. Benches were scattered throughout for sitting and remembering. There are about 78,400 graves, with many famous people among them – a serene place for quiet contemplation.

Mannheim is an industrial city one hour's tram ride from Heidelberg. It is not Germany's prettiest city but just north-east of the main railway station is one of the city's symbols - a 60m high water tower set in the centre of manicured lawns, flower beds and fountains. The red sandstone buildings and arcades lining the parameter add to its appeal. This is a bustling city with shoppers crowding the wide pedestrian malls and large department stores. Sculptures commemorating the world's first bicycle and the world's first automobile combining an internal combustion engine and integrated chassis attracted our attention. Another landmark was the 450m long mustard yellow and red sandstone castle now occupied by the university. Best of all was the hours spent exploring Louisenpark. Two parishioners treated us to a day in this amazing municipal Park of 41 hectares of endless green lawns, gorgeous flower beds, a miniature zoo and bird aviary, fairy penguins, pink flamingos, children's' playground, a lake to sail on and a fancy restaurant serving local mouth-watering fish and other cuisine. Who could ask for more?

Worms is Germany's oldest city with settlements that go back more than 6000 years. It is also the place where the Protestant Reformer Martin Luther ended his speech to the Emperor in 1521 with the words "Here I stand. I have no choice. May God help me. Amen." The world's largest Reformation memorial completed in 1868 marks the spot. Jews were living in Worms as early as the 10th century and had their own synagogue until they were exterminated during 1933 to 1945. More than 2000 gravestones have been preserved in the "Holy Sand" cemetery. This is the oldest preserved Jewish cemetery in Europe. It looked uncared for but in the sombre silence of the place we did indeed feel we were on holy ground. In sharp contrast, was a visit to St. Peter's Cathedral, the 'crown of the city'. It is the smallest but also the loveliest of the three Romanesque imperial Cathedrals on the Rhine. This visit too was a day trip by train from Heidelberg.

Two other parishioners invited us to join them on a drive to the enchanting gardens of the Schloss (Palace) Schwetzingen. This was the summer residence of the Prince-Elector Carl Theodor (1724-99). Its size is comparable to the gardens of Versailles. The central part of the garden is laid out geometrically in a mixture of French formality and English style landscaping. More than 100 sculptures are scattered throughout. We strolled past burbling fountains and strutting peacocks; walked through avenues of lime trees, under ivy covered arches and breathed in the perfume of a myriad coloured flowers. Amidst all this beauty, the Gods were not forgotten with marble temples of Apollo, Minerva, and Juno gleaming behind sparkling fountains, while Pan the God of shepherds, could be seen perched playfully on a stone wall blowing his pipes.

Our final day trip was by car to the town of Speyer, courtesy of a couple from the congregation who were most generous with their time. Here too is a magnificent Cathedral, the interior awesome in size and beauty. Underneath the east part of the cathedral is one of the largest and most beautiful crypts in the western world. It contains seven altars, and High Mass is still celebrated at the main altar on special occasions. The tombs of kings and emperors have been excavated and can now be seen together with the sandstone sarcophagi of eight emperors and kings along with some of their queens.

In the year 1084 a Jewish community found refuge in medieval Speyer and existed there for more than 400 years until they were taken to a concentration camp in France. Many of them were later executed at Auschwitz. We walked in solemn silence through the ruins and reconstruction of the synagogue, and from there to the Jewish ritual bath of Speyer. A semi-circular flight of stairs led us down to the immersion pool still containing water. All well preserved from the 16th century to the present day.

Our last couple of days was spent taking stock of what we had missed out on doing. A ride on the Neckarsonne was one of them and we hastened to the river to board the ship. The Neckarsonne is the largest and most modern steel ship in the world. It is 36.9m long, is powered by solar and glides gently along the Neckar River. We enjoyed a fascinating round view of the city and both banks of the river with a commentary on the highlights of Heidelberg and its outlying areas.

FASCINATING HEIDELBERG – A Journey Through Time (Cont'd).....

Not having access to a TV we spent much of the long evening hours reading avidly from the splendid library of books in the apartment. I also had fun creating interesting meals from unfamiliar ingredients. Excellent Indian restaurants within easy walking distance kept us from missing our beloved rice and curries. Best of all were the long walks along the grassy banks of the river, with the sun shining and a cool breeze blowing as we dodged the ever present cyclists who had right of way (this was rather exasperating). We loved watching the families having picnic meals, children playing, groups of young people sitting in circles on the grass ‘solving the problems of the world’ as Karol liked to remark; elderly couples sitting close on the benches remembering perchance, when they were young?. I delighted in the families of ducks of all varieties, sizes and colours, enjoying an evening walk with their baby chicks in tow, unconcerned by the humans sharing their space.

Perhaps you are not surprised I was fascinated by Heidelberg – a beautiful city and my journey through time.
