Message from the President

Dear Members

I was humbled by the fact that my election to the Presidency of the Silver Fawn Club was by unanimous choice. While a vote was not required, Leslie called for a show of hands and the support was overwhelming. It is an honour that I accept with both humility and pride. I hope that I can live up to your expectations. I realise that I have to fill some very big shoes left by my predecessors. I thank them for setting the standards that have made this Club a great organisation to be a part of. It saddens me however, that even with some serious arm twisting, we have not been able to fill some positions on the committee. Please consider nominating as it would be great to work with a full committee. Judging from our first meeting we are a very compatible group and look like we are on the way to having a very good year, so why not be a part of it. It will work best if all our members become 'involved'. After all it is our way of life, not just an occasional visit to a place of entertainment.

Thanks to Herbie Tucker and Patrick Maloney we filled the Vice President and 1 General Committee position respectively. I am thrilled to have them on board. With Pauline's upgrade to Assistant Secretary, we only need a Club Captain and 2 General Committee persons.

With our club activities we are hoping to revert to the 'tried and true' in some cases and explore new ideas where change is necessary. I hope that we will not have any of those 'punch ups' that Davenal referred to. Actually he was only joking but we did have some spirited arguments on occasions. It is how it should be if the Club is to progress.

I look forward to the functions and events of the Club in the coming year and hope to see you all participating and attending in greater numbers. I wish all my friends and members a Happy and Holy Easter in the coming season.

Sid Shedden

A Tribute to Trilby Noel Reimers Misso

Trilby Misso passed away on the 24th of February 2009 aged 92 years. Trilby was a well known icon on the Redcliffe Peninsula where in the 1960s he started the firm of Trilby Misso Solicitors and was also the senior partner.

He was born in Sri Lanka on the 8th of June 1916, immigrated to Australia in 1954 and settled in Redcliffe and helped to shape the Peninsula during the next 20 years.

Trilby became a member of the Club in 1971 and since that day has served as Honorary Solicitor. He was instrumental in setting up the incorporation of the Club and advising on constitutional matters.

In addition to this he was a keen Golfer and presented a Challenge trophy in his name for the Golf Tournament. He attended many camps and the Cook's cabin was always reserved for him. He was a regular attendee at the Club functions and was always the first couple on the floor at all dances well into his twilight years..

He was well liked by everyone and had a kind word in all his dealings. He has helped many club members find jobs and gave them their first job. In addition he helped many members with their legal problems and always charged special rates

This dignified gentleman will be missed at the Club events in the future. The Committee and members of the Silver Fawn Club send their deepest sympathies to his family.

Trilby is survived by four children, five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

REPORT ON FUNCTIONS/EVENTS

Valentine's Nite Dance —14th February 2009

Well, we expected this to be a low key function but ended on a very high note.

Over 160 people danced the night away amidst glitter and glamour thanks to the tasteful décor by Romaine Jayakody. The setting really put everyone into a romantic mood. So it should, after all, it was Valentine's nite dance.

Every lady was ushered in with a rose by Francois, who had this envious task. Some say he was rewarded with a peck or two. Lucky guy...

Stunning visual effect set by Jeremy and Rena Henderling added to their culinary delight. It was a feast to the eyes as well as the taste buds. Well done caterers. This décor was so effective that many people were having their photos taken by a professional photographer.

The music provided by Cool Daddies and DJ Colin set the mood for a wonderful night. In fact, it was non stop dancing apart from a break to hand over the Door and Raffle prizes for a lucky few.

We appreciate and thank our donors for their generosity, namely: Jeremy Henderling (Sultan's Kitchen), Patrick Maloney (3 gifts), Basheer Omar, Ivan and Lois Wijethunga and one anonymous person. Thanks to these donors and the fact that all proceeds from the raffle was going to the Victorian Fire Disaster victims, triggered a generous response from everyone. I am proud to announce that we collected $476.00. Everybody really dug deep. Good on you, Silver Fawn Revellers.

Well, as you all know, success of every function is Team effort. There are many to be thanked especially for the support from Sid, Davenal, the Committee and of course my wife Beatrice.

Egerton de Fransz
Chairperson

Letter to the Editor

Thank you very much for a fantastic Valentines Night Dance. A special mention must be made of Romaine Jayakody for the fabulous décor she provided. We hope she continues to express her exceptional talents to the new Committee. Thank you also to Jeremy and Rena Henderling for the delightful meal and their accompanying décor. We had a most wonderful Night.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING REPORT

The 39th Annual General Meeting of the Silver Fawn Club was attended by 92 members and a few guests. Davenal spoke of another successful year with a full programme of activities. In keeping with the theme of giving members more value for their money, the committee has attracted more members to all the Club events. The Treasurer reported that due to some unforeseen expenses the Club had finished marginally in the red over the financial year. Overall there was no cause for concern as the financial status of the Club was quite healthy. Some questions were raised from the floor and Andy provided answers to these questions to the satisfaction of the members. His efforts were applauded because he undertook the job of Treasurer with no accounting experience and achieved excellent results with some help from Deepthi Abeywardana.

The formal business of the meeting having been concluded Leslie Ephraims was appointed Protem Chairman. He commended Davenal on his 18 years on the committee including a total of 7 years as President. The nominations for committee positions were then read and the following were elected unopposed:

President:	Sidney Shedden
Vice President:	Colin Kellar
Secretary:	Ingrid Keegel
Treasurer:	David Grugeon
Asst. Treasurer:	Elizabeth Grugeon
General Committee:	Marie Kellar
	Pauline Shedden

As there were no nominations for the other position of Vice President, Club Captain, Assistant Secretary, and 2 General Committee positions, the following nominations were made from the floor and accepted unanimously:

Vice President:	Herbie Tucker
General Committee:	Patrick Maloney

Pauline Shedden offered to take on the position of Assistant Secretary and was also accepted unanimously. The position of Club Captain and 2 General Committee positions still remain unfilled and the new committee were asked to try to fill these at a later time.

In closing Sid thanked the members for their enthusiastic support of his nomination. He also thanked those who accepted positions on the committee and looked forward to working with them to successfully manage the business of the Club.

On behalf of the Club and the committee Sid thanked Davenal for his many years of service to The Silver Fawn. Sid personally thanked Davenal for his help and guidance in the past two years of his Vice Presidency, and presented him with a certificate of appreciation from the committee and members of the Club.

FUND RAISER FOR SHARON SIMMONS

5th March 2009

Ralph Gray
1/21 Castello Circuit
Varsity Lakes, QLD 4227
Mobile. 0417725083
rbgbuilder@gmail.com

Hi Everyone

My name is Sharon Simmons. My family are working together to create this fundraiser so that I might continue my medical care and regain as much of my life back as possible. I am asking you for your help because I believe there is so much more for me to give in this life and I am not prepared to just let my abilities slip away.

I am a young mother of two children and last year in July I was diagnosed with a tumour in the brain. It was life changing as over the next 6 months it grew into a mass 7cm in diameter at its widest point. As it grew my ability to walk, get dressed or take care of my children quickly deteriorated. I found myself for the first time as an adult completely dependent on others to help me; even with the basics of everyday life.

When the chemotherapy became ineffective, I felt like I was doomed! Luckily, through the advice of my Oncologist (Dr Geoff Goh) I found a gifted neurosurgeon (Dr Brindha Shivalingum) who saved my life through a complicated 10hr operation. However, it was found that another part of the tumour existed deeper in my brain which Dr Brindha was not able to remove.

While the specialists are working on how to treat the remaining tumour, I have a long and strenuous recovery from the initial operation. I want to relearn my independence and be here for my children as they grow. My family are raising funds to help me to refit our house and obtain the aides and medical care I need so that I can find my independence again and feel useful. If you are able to assist me with your kind gift, my family and I would be forever grateful.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my request and I wish you well for the future.

Sincerely,

Sharon Simmons.

PS.

On behalf of my niece, I Ralph Gray will be holding the 1st Sri Lankan dance/fund raiser on the Gold Coast. I have booked the hall for the 30th May Saturday night, (Casey hall Sacred Heart Church) at Surfers paradise parish 50 Fairway drive Clear Island Waters. I will be requesting you for all your support in sponsorship and donations. Please dig deep and give with a good heart and a prayer. Donations could be made in many ways. Any money by way of cheques to be sent to the above address or debited directly to:

R Gray Sharon Simmons fund raiser G C. BSB No 084462 Ac No 834570288 National Bank.

Would you kindly inform me urgently if you would be a sponsor, like to attend the dance and would also sell some tickets or to support me in any way you can?. You may contact Ralph on the above. Thanking you so much as we all stand strong together as one, for this worthwhile cause.

Ralph Gray

From the Kitchen.....

Imbul Kiri Bath (Milk Rice with Coconut stuffing)

This is a treat for traditional auspicious occasions.

Method:

Cook milk rice. Follow directions below.

While the rice is cooking make the peni-pol filling. Follow directions below.

How to make the milk rice (kiri bath):

Ingredients:

3 cups of white rice

Cream of 1 coconut (or one 13 oz can)

Salt to taste

Clean and wash the rice. Put the rice in a pan, stick in the index finger on surface of rice and fill water up to slightly above the 2nd joint of the index finger. Cover and cook the rice under low heat.

When the rice is almost done, mix the salt with the coconut milk and add to the rice stir and cook for a few more minutes.

Alternatively, you can cook the rice in rice cooker with slightly more water than the 3 cup level. Add salted coconut milk about 5 minutes before the rice is done and stir. Cook for about 5 more minutes.

How to make the filling (peni-pol):

1 1/2 cups freshly grated coconut.

1/2 cup of Kitul Treacle (Or substitute 2/3 cup of brown sugar, dissolved in 1/4 cup water)

3 cloves crushed.

Pinch salt.

Pinch pepper.

Bring the treacle to boil under medium heat. Add the rest of the filling ingredients. Cook for about 5 minutes stirring constantly till all the liquid is absorbed by the coconut. (Make sure that it is still moist)

Now assemble the imbul kiri bath.

Put a few spoons of milk rice into an oiled mould. (Any small dish that is not shallow should work).

Spread it evenly around the mould up to the rim, leaving a hole in the middle. Fill the hole with the filling, and top it with more milk rice, compress so that it is flush with rim of the mould.

Carefully un-mould, onto a plate. Enjoy!

Save Trees – and save yourself money

I have been concerned for many years about how we waste paper by buying notebooks which are soon used up and by making notes, shopping lists, reminders, etc., on good paper which we then throw away.

Also, notes on scraps of paper, or on old envelopes, often get lost.

To help, I have invented an everlasting notebook. It uses specially treated paper and a special pen so you can write in it and then erase with a damp cloth (we supply the pen and the cloth!). This means you can reuse, and reuse, and reuse.

The notebook has sections for Shopping, To do, Birthdays and other important dates, and appointments – plenty of room to record and remember all those important facts, times, and dates. There are even blank pages in case you want to draw pictures or diagrams.

Today is a good day to start caring for the environment and saving trees!

There are three models of My Everlasting Notebook. The Standard Edition, a Deluxe Version and a smaller Pocket Edition all made in Australia.

All the details are on the internet and you can order online or contact me.
