Presidents Message

This will be the last newsletter for this Presidential year and it is with a measure of sadness that I advise you that this will be my last. It has been my great honour and privilege to be chosen to serve The Silver Fawn Club and its members, as your President, in the last year and as a Vice-President in the two previous years. While I consider this to be one of the greatest achievements of my life, my ability to maintain the mental agility and physical strength to cope with the leadership activities of this Club, have been effected by failing health and age. It would have given me the greatest pleasure to have been the President of this Club in its 40th year of existence, but it is not what is best for me but what is best for the Club that matters.

I will not leave the new President and his committee to sink or swim, if my help is needed I will be there to support the team, as I am sure any of the other members of the present team will do if they are called on for help.

Some sad events have taken place during the year, the saddest of which was losing our good friend and Honorary Solicitor, Trilby Misso. We are fortunate that his son Hilton has stepped in to take on his roll.

I will keep this message brief as there will be an abundance of reports to be read particularly because December was a very active month with Golden Years, Children's Christmas Party, Carols and New Years Eve all happening in a short period of time. One disappointing aspect of our activities has been our sporting events, which have failed to attract any useful numbers to justify keeping them on the Club's calendar of events. The golf in particular received some excellent donations from Golf World and Liquor Legends, but the attendance was, to say the least, an embarrassment to the Club. It will be my recommendation to the incoming committee to discontinue the golf and the tennis and carom.

Overall we have had a very successful year, culminating with the New Years Eve Dance which made up for any financial short fall resulting from the other Yule Tide events, all of which were outstanding successes from the members' point of view.

On behalf of the Committee, Pauline and myself, I wish you all a great New Year and New Decade. Hope it brings you all health, happiness and above all love.

Kindest regards,

Sid Shedden

Colin Kellar.

Held on 7th November 2009

The Have a Chat was held at Ithaca Bowls Club, Red Hill. With the leadership of Marie and Colin Kellar with help from Arlene Diaz and Ingrid Keegel It was a successful event which was enjoyed by one and all.

The day started off with cake, patties, tea, coffee and cordial, it was followed by the ever popular Game of bingo, which was organized by Patrick Maloney, Ingrid Keegel and Karl Kronenberg.

Lunch was simple but tasty rice and curry prepared by Marie Kellar, Followed by sticky date pudding and custard.

Music provided by Colin.K.

Several others helped in many different ways to make the day a success. My sincere thanks to each one of them.

Marie Kellar.

Golf Day

25th October 2009

Silver Fawn Club

In spite of two postponements, firstly because it was inadvertently scheduled for "Fathers Day", and secondly because of a lack of numbers as it was clashing with some other event, the numbers for the golf day did not improve. It was embarrassing, particularly for Norman de la Harpe, who had secured some excellent prizes donated by Golf World and Liquor Legends, worth a considerable sum of money.

This has been the trend over the past few years and we can only conclude that the running of sporting events is not something the membership wants. It is not for the want of trying that these events are poorly attended.

The winner of the perpetual trophy was Thomas Storey, who played a sizzling game of golf, for the handicap allocated to him, and there was no one to take the challenge up to him on the day. The five members and four guests got plenty of golf balls a cap each and T shirts were given as prizes. The major overall trophy of a golf bag was won by a guest (as usual)

Many thanks to Norman for his efforts in organising the event. Many thanks also to Toni La Broy for being the only lady to participate. She may have even won the trophy but that was another storey. (Ha! Ha!)

Golden Years Christmas Party

Approximately 140 members and guests attended the Golden Years Party. They were served a glass of wine (Red or White) or an orange juice on arrival. Four young ladies (my beautiful grand-daughters) helped with the serving. After they were seated, the guests were served an entrée comprised of a pan roll, patty and sandwich. A piece of Christmas cake presented in an attractive package made up by Romain was distributed to all.

The welcome return of 'Stardust' set the tone for an excellent evening. It was good to see Romany & Neville enjoying their performance as much as the dancers and listeners. The packed floor was a good indication that their brand of music was enjoyed by the regulars. It was good to have them back after their overseas trips and other commitments.

An outstanding meal was provided by Peter Happuarachchi, leaving everyone feeling well contented.

Two tastefully framed seascapes donated by Charmaine Wilson and a fruit basket were the main prizes in the raffle. The décor in the Christmas theme organised by Marie, Ingrid and Arleen created a festive atmosphere. I must thank Pauline for taking over overall responsibility for the event when I finished up in hospital for a few days. Thankfully my condition was not serious on that occasion and I was back in the fray on the night of the dance.

In the end, as they say in the classics, a good time was had by all.

Are you looking for finger food, or do you want to stock your freezer with homemade Lamprise, and don't want to do the cooking?

Children's Christmas Party:

This was a very successful event with 30 children participating. Santa arrived just after 5 p.m. much to the delight of the children who were eagerly awaiting their presents. Our sincere thanks go to the parents and grandparents who brought their children to the Christmas Party. It made the event very satisfying for the organisers to see so many children enjoying themselves. After Santa left the children opened their presents and were able to treat themselves to the buffet of pastries, cakes, etc. The children were very happy to also receive little treats in cones made out of velvet with their individual names on it. These were made by Arlene Diaz and the Committee thanks her very much for her time and effort to make them. Our thanks also go to the committee members who helped in organising and making this a success.

Ingrid Keegel and Marie Kellar.

Following is an extract of a Message from the Carols Co-ordinators:

Our evening of Christmas Carols celebrated that special birth so long ago in far away Jerusalem, which gives rise to the spirit of Christmas around the world every year.

First thank you to every member of the 35 strong Choir, who gave their time, efforts, patience and humour over many weeks to prepare for the Carols night. Special thanks to Stella Ephraims for her key role in providing the musical backing for the choir, Ithaca Bowls Club for use of the club facilities for practices (thanks for your help and patience - Col). Dion Van Heer and Susan Fahir for burning the midnight oil to help prepare the books at short notice. Thanks also to Herby Tucker for his unrelenting all-round efforts and back-room support over the weeks of practice, made noticeable by his absence on the night due to ill health.

Thanks to Pauline Shedden and Marie Kellar for the yummy food preparations that kept us all going through the practices, which were financed by the Club.

We hope you enjoyed your evening with us as we enjoyed our presentation to you and perhaps you may even consider joining us in the choir or audience next year, If you are interested please let us know.

Claude Gonsalves, Elizabeth Grugeon & Laurensz Manricks.

Presidents Note. It would be remiss of me to let this message go through without a mention of the very special effort put in by Laurensz Manricks. The measure of a good event co-ordinator is how well people respond to him. It is no mean feat to co-ordinate the input of so many with varying degrees of musical expertise. Without Laurensz, it is reasonable to say, that this event would not have got off the ground. It is my sincere hope that you will be there to lead the choir and the practices this year and for many years to come. A CD and hopefully a DVD of the choir in action will be available soon on request.

New Years Eve Dance

Rumours and expectations that several other dances and family parties may cause some problems with getting the numbers for our dance, was a big concern in the early stages of organisation. However, that proved to be an unnecessary worry, because by the closing date we were booked to capacity. Regrettably, a few late requests for tickets had to be knocked back.

One of the best things about the night was that the crowd was there to have a good time and a few minor hick-ups were not going to spoil things for them. We blew a fuse right at the start of proceedings (an actual one not a mental one). A couple of recycled jokes from yours truly had a fifty per cent rate of hit and miss, but it helped to pass the time. Some ingenuity on the part of the Cool Daddies and some of the members and guests soon had things back on track. (sort of). The music and air conditioners were working again. The lost time threw the schedule out of whack but no one seemed to care.

The Cool Daddies kept the crowd jumping most of the night and Ty Fox filling in with his disco delights and Baila during the breaks. Peter Hapuarachchi put on a great meal, as usual and even added a serve of kiribath and katta sambol at midnight. I am sure everybody went away satisfied that it had been a great night. I know Pauline and I had a superb New Years Eve so if you have any complaints, talk to the next committee.

I know that my rave reviews about the events that we put on seem to get under the skin of a very small minority. However, my enthusiasm is not about what the committee or I do, it is more to do with the attitude of the Silver Fawnians (to coin a phrase) and how you guys know how to have a good time. I cherish the comment made by a recent arrival in Queensland, when he asked around he was told that if he wanted to have a great time on New Years Eve he should go to the Silver Fawn Dance. He not only came to the dance and had a great time but he is now a member of the Club. So take a bow Silver Fawn we have a good reputation in the community.

HAVE-A-CHAT Saturday, 16th January 2010

Report: A small crowd of the regulars numbering about 40, had a very enjoyable afternoon at the Bowls Club. To make it easier on the organisers the format was kept simple and the usual bingo and raffle added the excitement to the day. Thanks to Elizabeth, the last two bingo pots were sweetened by donations of extra cash.

The morning started with tea, coffee and a soft drink accompanied by cake and biscuits. Pauline, as usual, provided an excellent meal making a club subsidy unnecessary. Fruit salad & Ice cream was enjoyed as the dessert. The first prize was fresh fruit basket won by one of our guests, (Glenda Misso's daughter) who was visiting from Sydney with two pairs of twins. The boys were a credit to their parents, seen but not heard, as us old timers believe children should be. The second prize was a Gift voucher donated by Elizabeth and the third was a surprise gift donated by Stella and a Platter and place mats made up a fourth. Neville provided some music and Colin brought along a Karaoke set up. We were entertained with a couple of songs from Rachel Oates, visiting from Melbourne. She is Neville's sister and an accomplished singer in her own right. I feel that I can safely say that everyone went away feeling relaxed and contented.
