Message from the President

Dear Members,

'Tis the festive season that fast approaches. A few more "shut eyes" and it will be upon us bringing joy, peace and harmony to all humankind.

Talking about festivities we had one memorable day on 8th October in the guise of HIGH TEA. Oh boy! It wasn't simply the food that was scrumptious but the presentation that took all of us to "Buckingham Palace" for a few fleeting hours.

If the food and presentation took your fancy then what about the attire worn by the Ladies and Gentlemen! I must admit it was highly dignified and graceful to say the least. Incidentally, it was also a 30 year celebration of "HAVE - A - CHATS." Well done guys and girls.

The Bollywood Nite started out well but lost it's lustre somewhere along the way. I must admit the "Bollywood" dancers were exceptionally talented. Their presentation and choreography was slick and very, very entertaining. They really put on a wonderful show that delighted and thrilled us all.

Here too, most of the members and their guests dressed to the occasion. The one that stood out in the ladies section for her outstanding costume was Yvonne Omar. Oh boy! Didn't she look like an Indian movie star! And the men were equally outrageous in their costumes too.

Although Colin Kellar and Isidore Storey took the limelight for their costumes, I certainly thought Norman de la Harpe, with his extraordinary moustache truly resembled a villainous Indian movie star.

Looking ahead, we are planning to have a memorable NEW YEAR'S EVE at the Riverside Reception in New Farm. Remember it's waterfront and fully air conditioned. So I'll see you there in your best attire.

Finally, on behalf of the Committee and myself I wish you all a wonderful and peaceful Christmas.

Egerton de Frasz
President

CARROM TOURNAMENT

It was a lazy Sunday morning with expectations high but no goals or ambitions to win the coveted Carrom Tournament.

Then they came with smiles and that sinister Lankan look which says " I AM THE CHAMP" but hol la lah, they were all champs.

Twelve contestants all trying to thrash each other to be number one. Some fell on the wayside others stood up to the challenge.

What a contest. Dog hitting dog. Leslie Ephraims in fact put two dogs in with one devastating strike; that was no fluke they said because Dennis Arnolda followed it up with an uncanny counter attack. It wasn't just a game, it was a personal vendetta to preserve one's honour and so they did.

At the end of the day, after almost 6 hours of brutal dog bashing, winners appeared with utmost relief.

SINGLES WINNER: Dr. Sudath Ihalawaththa

RUNNER UP: Isidore Storey (We had to carry him to his car as he was badly bruised - mentally of course)

DOUBLES WINNER: Egerton de Frasz and Dennis Arnolda

RUNNER UP: Norman de la Harpe and Patrick Maloney

Spring Carnival High Tea

A BRIEF HISTORY ON THE ORIGINS OF THE “HIGH TEA”

The idea of High Tea was conceived in the 1800's by Anna Maria Russell, Duchess of Bedford, who often became hungry between lunch and dinner, especially in the Summer when dinner was served even later.

She ordered a small meal of bread, butter and other niceties, such as cakes, tarts and biscuits to be brought to her boudoir. Her habit caught on and the concept of a small meal, of niceties and perhaps tea, became popular.

The concept for the Have-A-Chat Party “High Tea” was the brainchild of Cherry Schokman inspired by happy memories of growing up and watching her Mum at work, nimble fingered and always wanting to give of her best to make people happy.

Cherry set out to give our valued Have-A-Chat Party attendees a happy and delightful afternoon “High Tea” experience and she achieved that and more.

Thank you to Cherry, Carylle & Maurice de Rozairo and the dedicated team of helpers for all the hard work undertaken in making the Have-A-Chat Party “High Tea” a success.

The tables were covered in crisp white linen and adorned with Teapots and cups filed with pink and white roses.

The food was delicious and well arrayed – tasty and pleasing to the eye.

It was wonderful to see everyone dressed to grace the occasion and set the scene for a very elegant afternoon.

The response and comments from the members and guests who attended has been excellent. They expressed their enjoyment in the ambiance of a lovely afternoon.

A FULL STOMACH & A HAPPY HEART

What a wonderful way to celebrate 30 years of “Have-A-Chat” Parties

All he wanted to do was eat, drink and be Mary.*

She said "I would like to come back as a cow."

I said "you're obviously not listening."

CLUB CHATTER

Following the recent election of a new Management Committee by the Red Hill Community Sports Club (RHCSC), fresh negotiations commenced in relation to future years' use of facilities by the Silver Fawn Club. Conditions and hire rates were presented to our sub-committee. Our full Committee then met and discussed our response and decided to continue our association with the RHCSC. However discussions to seek a compromise on the hire rates and some conditions of use are currently underway. We are confident that common ground will be achieved.

On a lighter note, several SF members have been on holidays of late. Therese & Michael on a cruise around New Zealand discovered Bob & Christine Hogg a mere two staterooms away. Leslie on a trip to Melbourne had Spencer & Caryll Herft on the same flight. Small world. Oh, and our Secretary is just back after spending a month in the Old Dart.

Huge thanks to Dennis Arnolda for his photos of the Bollywood Nite. Ditto to Cherry Schokman for those of the High Tea. Please folks, don't be shy, send in your photos and letters for the newsletter to "tmmetzo@hotmail.com".
