Message from the Management Committee

Dear Members

Looking back on the year to date, we are thankful for your attendance and support at the functions, which have been enjoyed by many, both members and guests. We have had variety in an attempt to give you the best events and enjoyment we as a committee can provide. Thank you to all the committee members who have been behind the scenes and their band of volunteer helpers who have helped achieve these great results.

As we proceed into the rest of 2012/13 we have many more great events for you to look forward to. Let us see everyone at the Club night in November, the Golden Years Christmas Party and the Christmas Carols in December, and celebrate seeing in the New Year with a great night of dancing, fine dining, and merriment with your friends at the beautiful air conditioned Riverside Receptions. Ask those who attended last year at the same venue about their experience and we are sure you will want to join us. We have had many requests during the year to return to this venue because of the fabulous time had there in 2011/12.

Please refer to the flyers in this issue for the details of these upcoming events and just contact the people named on the flyers for tickets. We want to see you and your friends enjoying these functions as you have done in the past. Again we say thanks for your support but let's make these remaining months the best ever. YOU ONLY LIVE ONCE!

Therese
(for the Management Committee)

The Committee of the Silver Fawn Club Inc. would like to advise the members that Niranjalie Silva has tendered her resignation as President of the Club.

We wish to thank her for all her hard work, enthusiasm, animation and vision for the future of the Club. We wish her well for the future.

Editor's Note: Many thanks to Susan, Romaine and Michael for their help in producing the Newsletter. Also to Dennis Arnolda whose photographs brighten its pages.

BITS & PIECES

Letter to the Editor

The function “Variety is the Spice of Life” was indeed a night with a difference. The décor was simple but unusual to say the least with dried fish hanging in the nets decorating the buffet table. The meal was splendid in its variety, with no shortage of hoppers and godamba roti, despite the words of caution in the last edition of the Silver Scene. The accompanying dishes did not disappoint. We congratulate Niranjalie and Isidore on their spirit of adventure and sense of fun. – Deanna & Karol.

XX

NOTICE TO ALL MEMBERS

Please be aware that when you book tickets and then cannot attend the function, and have not cancelled before the cut off date for sale of tickets, unfortunately you are still required to pay for your tickets.

This is because the Club has already committed to pay the caterer for the number of meals which have been ordered. So please let us know before the cut off date if you cannot attend.

XX

LIMIT ON NUMBER OF ATTENDEES

Owing to renovations and the inability to serve food in the bar area, the reduced space available to the Club for functions means we will have to restrict ticket sales to a maximum of 125. You will then be placed on a “waiting” list in case of cancellations. It is therefore important to book early, so you don’t miss out.

Have-a-Chat—Christmas in July

On this lovely July Saturday many old and new members and friends gathered for the Silver Fawn Club's Christmas in July. They entered the hall to the sight of tables festooned with Christmas decorations. While a beautiful morning tea was enjoyed, everyone in attendance (around 100) chatted and caught up with friends.

The entertainment by John Cornelius was wonderful as the crowd joined in singing Christmas songs to the music while many took to the floor and danced creating a very festive atmosphere.

Then it was time to partake of the delicious banquet prepared by Jeremy Henderling which is always a delight to the eye and as well to the taste.

We continued the proceedings with the raffle, which saw many happy winners and more festive music, much dancing and merriment until all too soon it was time to say goodbye.

I would like to say thank you to the committee members who were responsible for organizing the event, the raffle prizes, entertainment and food, and especially, the magnificent décor.

A special thank you must go to Jeremy for providing a beautiful banquet which looked almost too good to eat and was again so tantalizing to the taste buds. Again a special thanks to Rena for her generosity in allowing the committee to use her beautiful decorations which created a very festive atmosphere.

Thank you to Dennis and Jeremy who helped Michael and I set up the tables and chairs on Friday afternoon thereby making it easier to finish the set up on Saturday morning and to the sub-committee who worked on that day to ensure that those who attended had an enjoyable time.

VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF LIFE!!

The Club Night with a difference - held 25th August 2012

It was a full house with around 150 members and guests turning up to experience the variety that was being offered. There were hoppors, thosai and godamba roti along with rice, various curries and other accompaniments. The food was sourced from several different caterers and laid out imaginatively at the "Fisherman's Wharf" and the "Hopper Hut". The Fisherman's Wharf was complete with fishing net, crab pot and real dried fish whilst a crow perched on the "thatched" roof of the Hopper Hut. Palm trees from floor to ceiling dotted the hall. Unfortunately, due to the limited capacity of the hall we had to turn some people down. A big thank you to Rowena Western who came to our rescue at the last minute by making additional hoppors to cater to the tremendous number of people who joined us to experience an event, the likes of which we have never had before! Although we believed that one or two food items would need to be limited, this was not the case. In fact there was plenty of everything and some folk availed themselves of the opportunity to take some home at no cost.

Susan Fahir did a great job organising the raffle and the prizes. Additional prizes were donated by some members. Their generous support is greatly appreciated. Thank you to all the members and their friends who helped to set up the hall and assisted with various other tasks. Thanks are also due to Egerton de Fransz for being the MC for the night and to Karl Kronenberg who, along with Egerton, provided some sound effects to accompany the serving of the thosai! After dinner and the raffle draw, a cheque for $1,000.00 was presented by the Club to the CCC Foundation. $669.80 of this amount was contributed by our members and guests who gave generously when a donation box was taken around at a few of our functions. The Management Committee decided to top this up with a contribution of $330.20. The donation was gratefully accepted by Bill Deutrom who gave a short speech thanking the Club for its support.

Sincere thanks to all those who attended and helped to make this a great event. From comments received, it's nice to know that the majority of attendees enjoyed the night. We are very pleased to hear that Ramona Deutrom's Rock 'n Roll friends are eagerly awaiting the next event!
