PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We have enjoyed two functions this year, and I am delighted to say that both were successful and thoroughly enjoyable. One very important reason for that success has been the Chair of both subcommittees, Suzie Anthonisz. Her wonderful organisational skills, creativity, and attention to detail have made an enormous difference. I should know—she has been practising on me for 53 years!

The Mother's Day Afternoon Tea was a very special occasion and a great success. We had to cap numbers at 100 and still had a waiting list, which says a great deal about the enthusiasm of our members. The fashion parade, music from Ray Anthonisz and Johnny Cole, catering by Jeremy Henderling, the beautiful décor, and the "Dressing Up the Mother" competition all helped make the afternoon memorable. You will find more about this lovely event later in the newsletter.

The Baby Boomers Party Band, together with guest crooners from among our own members, kept the dance floor full and the atmosphere lively. The meal was enjoyable, and the unobtrusive alternate-drop menu added to the pleasure of the evening as members and guests gathered in their formal attire. Although we had 86 attendees and still had to meet the minimum booking of 100, it was a night out to remember.

While both events were successful, each brought its own challenges. Our 56-year history helps explain this. Many of our members prefer daytime events, particularly because night driving, city venues, parking, and cost can be difficult. Others enjoy the chance to dress up and attend an evening function, where cost may be less of a concern. There is probably a third group who enjoy both—and I know the Committee is always encouraged by that support. For the Gala Dance, much of the preparation was completed beforehand through meetings and phone calls, and the hotel staff managed the set-up and pack-down. By contrast, the Mother's Day Afternoon Tea required hands-on work from the Committee, with only two hours to set up before the event and about an hour and a half to pack down afterwards. Like many of our daytime attendees, we are also mindful of the practical challenges that can come with age and disability. I do not pretend to have a perfect answer. We simply need to keep listening, stay aware of the different needs within our membership, and plan our events with care. Read about the exciting upcoming events further in this newsletter.

I would also like to let you know that our Club is moving to a new bank, ANZ, as our long-standing bank no longer meets our needs. For the moment, you may use either bank for EFT payments while we complete the transfer to ANZ.

We are also moving to an online booking system. There is a fuller explanation of TryBooking, along with an opportunity to practise using it, later in the newsletter. Please do give it a try. You will still be able to book a function by phone and pay by EFT, so no one will be left behind. We hope the new system will make bookings clearer for everyone and help avoid the confusion that can occur when payments are made without a committee member being advised. Under the current system, we also sometimes have bookings that remain unpaid until we follow up, only to find that the people are no longer attending. By then, the Club may already have confirmed numbers with the caterer and can lose money as a result. We hope this change will make the process easier for all.

Change is always with us, and your Management Committee is doing its best to adapt while continuing to care for the needs of our members. Please remember that Committee members are volunteers who give their time and energy to help the Club continue to thrive. Throughout Silver Fawn's 56-year history, we have adjusted to many changes while keeping our members at the heart of what we do. With your patience, support, and goodwill, we will continue to do so. Thank you, as always, for your support and friendship.

Take care and go gently.

Denis

BOOKING EVENTS ONLINE

A quick guide for Silver Fawn Club members

We are launching an online booking system (using TryBooking) in October for those members who wish to book and receive immediate confirmation. For those who prefer to contact a committee member and pay by EFT you can still do so.

Anyone who wishes to book online will be able to follow these simple steps:

1. Click the EVENT LINK: Event links will be in our newsletter, on our website or posted to our Facebook page.
2. Click the BOOK NOW button: Select the number of tickets you need.
3. Select your tickets: 'Financial Member' or 'Non-financial member'.
4. Enter Attendee Names: You need to provide the first and last name for each person attending, their email (or use your own if they don't have one). These are required for each ticket holder. Phone numbers are optional.
5. Dietary Requirements (optional): A place to list any special dietary needs.
6. Payment: You can pay online with a Credit Card, PayPal or EFT/Direct Debit (bank transfer).
7. Once complete, you will receive a payment receipt or an EFT invoice for payment (depending on your selected payment method). Once payment is received you will receive an email confirmation and your ticket/s.
8. All communication for the event will also arrive to your inbox.

56th Anniversary Gala Dance

The Marriott Ballroom, glowing in Silver Fawn's signature orange and black, was a beautiful setting for our joyful 56th anniversary celebration as the oldest Sri Lankan club in Queensland. Elegant guests, glittering city lights and river views all added to a memorable evening.

We warmly honoured the VIPs who have helped shape Silver Fawn's proud history, including Life Member Cherry Schokman and past presidents Alan Western, Isidore Storey, Laurensz Manricks, Brian Dissanayake and Niranjali Silva. Past and present Management Committee members were also thanked for their generous volunteer service in organising our much-loved social functions adding to Silver Fawn's legacy.

Special thanks were extended to the Anniversary Ball Subcommittee, led by Chair Suzie Anthonisz, together with Brian and Tami Dissanayake, Denis Anthonisz, Laurensz Manricks, and Ranjan and Namal Wijeratne. Their dedication, teamwork and generous spirit helped bring the evening to life.

Dinner was beautifully presented and thoroughly enjoyed, with canapés providing a delightful start to the celebrations. The Marriott staff are to be congratulated for their efficient, attentive and courteous service throughout the evening.

Tim and Maggie from the Baby Boomers Party Band filled the room with energy and nostalgia, keeping the dance floor packed with favourite hits from the 60s and 70s. Laurensz Manricks and Johnny Cole also added to the celebration with their talented vocal performances.

The raffle was another lively highlight, raising more than a thousand dollars thanks to the generous support of guests and the beautifully presented prizes. Thank you too to:-

- Brian and Tami Dissanayake for purchasing, preparing and presenting the raffle so beautifully.
- Tami, Namal, Ranjan and Tyrone Allon for enthusiastically selling tickets.
- Sandun Wickramasinghe for his valued electronic consultancy.

"Oh, what a night!" was a joyful and fitting tribute to a wonderful celebration.

Happy 56th Birthday, Silver Fawn—and here's to many more wonderful celebrations together!

Mother's Day Afternoon Tea and Fashion Parade

Mother's Day was celebrated in grand style at the Wavell Heights Community Centre. Our first function for the year was a sell out with 100 attending and a waiting list of disappointed prospective attendees.

A Silver Fawn Fashion Parade was a first in our 56 year old Silver Fawn history, with an array of ladies' wear provided by U and I Fashions from Burleigh Heads.

The models were sensational, strutting their stuff with professional aplomb. Thank you to Tami, Tania, Vivienne and Cathy for setting the catwalk alive. Jeremy's afternoon tea was delicious in three sections of sandwiches, hot savouries and sweet delights. Suzie's deco set the scene for such a feast with a pastel theme of poppies and matching pastel accessories. Another feature of the afternoon was the entertainment provided by our classy musos, Ray Anthonisz and Johnny Cole.

There were other organised features which kept the Mother's Day revellers entertained. Johnny and Ramona were the winners of the Elimination Dance, blasting the other competitors off the floor with their fancy steps. The 'Dress the Mother' competition was a scream with volunteers from each table dressed creatively and colourfully by their table fashionistas. Rumour has it that some of the competitors were retired drag queens?!?!?

The Applause Meter determined the winner, Maxine Sela, celebrating her eightieth birthday with a popular win. Gerard Fernando brought silence to the 'have a chatting' by calling Bingo in his usual professional style. Bingo was another Silver Fawn first, free bingo tickets generating prizes rather than monetary rewards. Thank you Gerard and Thomazine for the beautiful Mother's Day hampers won by 3 lucky members and to our generous mystery donor for his bottle of Glenfiddich Scotch Whiskey. Another successful Silver Fawn Get Together with its main ingredients being good food, good company and good FUN!

MOTHER'S DAY AFTERNOON TEA.

There was a buzz of excitement when I mentioned to my daughters, Kerenza and Rowan, that I had plans to attend the Mother's Day Afternoon Tea on the 24th of May, with a Fashion Parade and Afternoon Tea catered by Jeremy Henderling.

The rows of hangers bearing dresses, skirts, blouses and pants stretched the length of the hall. While enjoying the delicious eats, we watched the attractive models strutting their stuff on the catwalk. One model in particular had fun sashaying up and down the catwalk. My girls and I lost no time picking several items of clothing to try on in the temporary dressing room constructed for privacy. The three of us had fun slipping garments on and off with appropriate comments while making our choices.

This was a lovely afternoon different and informal. We were fed by Jeremy and entertained by the mellow voices of Ray and Johnny. The table décor and colour scheme was lovely as always.

I had my two most favourite people with me at Cherry's table; I couldn't have asked for more and then imagine my delighted surprise when I had a winning Raffle ticket to one of the well-stocked Hampers.

Thank you Suzie, Denis and your team for your thoughtful planning and hard work.

Deanna.

I take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation and admiration to Suzie Anthonisz, Honorary Secretary, SFC for her exceptional interaction and communication skills in organising these events seamlessly. We are truly blessed to have Denis & Suzie Anthonisz and all other Committee Members who work tirelessly to reach successful and exciting outcomes. Thank you and wish you all good health.

Row and I had the pleasure of joining our daughter Melissa and her two daughters - Ella (15) and Sasha (13) on a recent trip to Sri Lanka. We caught up with some of the few remaining family members who still live in Colombo, revisited a number of our old favourite places and introduced the girls to a part of their heritage. Among their activities they took on the challenge of climbing Adam's Peak and Sigiriya, learned how to surf, enjoyed professional curry cooking lessons and had closeups with elephants. All this plus practising their Sinhalese phrases!

We were pleased to see the development and improvements in Sri Lankan life since our last visit some years ago. Most of the old-fashioned charm still remains and in our opinion it is one of the best holiday ventures at very reasonable cost.

Here are some comments from Sasha on our recent trip to SL.

"Sri Lanka was one of the best trips I have gone on so far! It was one of the best experiences of culture, family and adventure! I did things that I never thought I would be able to and saw things I had never seen before, but the best part of all was doing the whole experience with the people I love the most - my family. We had so many late night conversations, card games and dinners. Also the food was one of the biggest stand outs; I love Sri Lankan cuisine, it is one of my top three favourites. Seeing how it is made and making traditional food myself was a one-in-a-kind experience. Seeing and experiencing all of this at a young age was one of the best things I could do. I am so appreciative of all the people who made it happen and I can't wait to do it again!

I am currently undertaking academic research at ANU which explores how perceptions and ways of thinking (i.e. worldviews) relate to experiences and ways of living (i.e. participation and inclusion) in Australia.

To participate I am therefore seeking respondents for this in an online anonymous 15-20 min survey from any and all adult Australian citizens and permanent residents living in Australia. See attached (with QR code). use the link below.

Along with others, I am of course eager for Australia's Sri Lankan community to be well represented. Would you please be willing to help by forwarding it on through your Sri Lankan networks in Australia? $100 vouchers can be won by those who complete it.

Worldviews and ways of life in Australia

ANU researchers are exploring how perceptions and ways of thinking (i.e. worldviews) relate to experiences and ways of living (i.e. participation and inclusion) in Australia.

They are seeking respondents for their online anonymous 15-20 min survey from any and all adult Australian citizens and permanent residents living in Australia.

Please make sure you are represented in this meaningful research by completing this fascinating survey and also forwarding it to any others who may be interested. There are $100 vouchers to be won if you complete it!

Access the survey here (https://anu.au1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_0Ao5q9gu3ysrbVQ) in English or Tiếng Việt or বাংলা or 简体中文 or 繁體中文 or العربية.
